

The Lieutenant Governor's Military Service Pin

Throughout our history, Saskatchewan men and women have served in wars, dangerous peacekeeping missions, and vital domestic operations. They have made enormous sacrifices to represent our nation and to defend the principles of peace, freedom, and justice.

The Lieutenant Governor's Military Service Pin symbolizes the gratitude of the Crown and the people of Saskatchewan for those who have served with honour and valour. The pin is intended to be worn on civilian clothing, so that we might recognize those who serve when they are not in uniform.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Recipients must have resided in Saskatchewan at one time (this includes those who lived in the province for military training or posting).
- Current and retired members of the Canadian Armed Forces Regular, Primary, and Supplementary Reserve Force, including Canadian Rangers.
- Current and retired members of police forces (including municipal forces and the RCMP) who have served in military operations.
- On a discretionary basis, the pin may be presented to Saskatchewan residents who are current or former members of allied forces, such as the United States military, and those from Commonwealth nations.
- The Lieutenant Governor deeply values the service of Cadet Instructor Cadre Officers, but as the pin is intended to recognize those who may be called on to risk their lives for their country, CIC Officers are not eligible for this recognition.
- The pin is not presented posthumously.
